06	UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT WESTERN DISTRICT OF WASHINGTON
07	AT SEATTLE
08	UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,)	CASE NO. MJ 13-079
09	Plaintiff,	CASE NO. NIJ 13-07)
10	v.)	DETENTION ORDER
11	DENNIS NGUYEN,	DETERMINITY ORDER
12	Defendant.
13
14	Offense charged: Possession and Attempted Possession of Device Making Equipment
15	Date of Detention Hearing : February 15, 2013.
16	The Court, having conducted a detention hearing pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f), and
17	based upon the factual findings and statement of reasons for detention hereafter set forth, finds
18	that no condition or combination of conditions which defendant can meet will reasonably
19	assure the appearance of defendant as required and the safety of other persons and the
20	community.
21	FINDINGS OF FACT AND STATEMENT OF REASONS FOR DETENTION
22	1. Defendant is a native and citizen of Canada, residing in Surrey, British Columbia.

- 2. The AUSA proffers information that defendant was a leader of a skimming operation in which credit/debit card data was stolen in Canada and encoded onto plastic cards, which were transported into the United States for withdrawing funds from ATMs. An estimate of actual and attempted loss is in excess of half a million dollars. The AUSA expresses the concern that, if released, defendant could not effectively be prevented from talking to current or future defendants or witnesses in Canada.
- 3. Defendant poses a risk of nonappearance due to Canadian citizenship, and potential access to cash and identification and bank account information due to the nature of the instant charges. He poses a risk of financial danger when considering the nature of the instant charges and size of the alleged skimming operation.
- 4. There does not appear to be any condition or combination of conditions that will reasonably assure the defendant's appearance at future Court hearings while addressing the danger to other persons or the community.

It is therefore ORDERED:

- Defendant shall be detained pending trial and committed to the custody of the Attorney General for confinement in a correction facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal;
- 2. Defendant shall be afforded reasonable opportunity for private consultation with counsel;
- 3. On order of the United States or on request of an attorney for the Government, the person in charge of the corrections facility in which defendant is confined shall deliver
